

The Saint Andrew's Society of Washington, DC
Tartan Ball Silent Auction Donor Form

The 62nd Annual Tartan Ball will be held on Saturday, November 19th, 2011 at Mayflower Hotel in Washington, DC (1127 Connecticut Ave NW, Washington, D.C. 20036). Conjuring images of a more elegant era, this black tie evening boasts single malt scotch, dazzling cocktails and fine cuisine served amidst the heady entertainment provided by our own Highland Pipes & Drum Corps.

The Tartan Ball is sponsored by The St. Andrew's Society of Washington, D.C., a nonprofit fraternal social and cultural organization whose members are of Scottish birth or ancestry. The Society traces its origins back to 1760 in Colonial Alexandria, Virginia. Attendance at the Tartan Ball is open to all lovers of Scottish pageantry and culture. A Silent Auction accompanies the Ball.

Proceeds from the Silent Auction benefit the St. Andrew's Society's own Washington Scots Charity & Education Fund, a 501(c) (3) charitable arm of The Society. The Tartan Ball remains the single largest fundraiser for the Fund, which has enabled many American and Scottish students to further their higher education. 100% of the proceeds from the Tartan Ball's silent auction benefit this important charity. Thank you letters confirming donations are provided to all donors after completion of the silent auction conducted at the Tartan Ball on November 19th.

Please note that the information requested below is essential to developing the auction program, conducting the auction and generating thank you letters so please fill out completely.
