

The Saint Andrew's Society of Washington, DC

The Tartan Ball

Sponsorship Benefits

The 62nd Annual Tartan Ball will be held this year on Saturday, November 19th, 2011 in the Grand Ballroom of the historic Mayflower Hotel in Washington, DC, described by President Harry Truman as "Washington's 2nd best address". The Mayflower has hosted inaugural balls for every president from Calvin Coolidge through Ronald Reagan, and it has been the home for the Saint Andrew's Society Tartan Ball since 2009.

The Tartan Ball is offered by The St. Andrew's Society of Washington, D.C., a nonprofit fraternal social and cultural organization whose members are of Scottish birth or ancestry. The Society traces its origins back to 1760 in Colonial Alexandria, Virginia. Attendance at the Tartan Ball is not limited to members of the Society, but rather is open to friends of the Society and all lovers of Scottish pageantry and culture, regardless of their heritage.

All the Scottish pageantry of this grand ball, a high point of the Washington social season, will be on display for hundreds of fine guests in attendance. This elegant black tie evening boasts dazzling cocktails and cuisine, dancing with a renowned dance band, and a silent auction with exquisite items from jewelers, clothiers, and some of DC's finest restaurants.

Proceeds from the Tartan Ball, including those from our silent auction, benefit the St. Andrew's Society's own Washington Scots Charity & Education Fund, a 501(c) charitable arm of The Society, which has enabled students from both the United States and Scotland to further their academic pursuits.
